

Person Specification For Teacher of PE

The successful candidate will:

Teaching &amp; Learning
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• possess and demonstrate excellent and up to date subject knowledge underpinned by a good Physical Education/Sports Science Honours degree</li><li>• possess a postgraduate teaching qualification or be in training to obtain one (including QTS)</li><li>• demonstrate outstanding teaching practice at Key Stages 3, 4 and 5, including having high aspirations for their students</li><li>• have knowledge and understanding of school Health &amp; Safety requirements and procedures relating to PE / Sport activities</li><li>• be able to evidence up to date knowledge of examination board requirements in relation to qualifications at GCSE and A Level</li><li>• demonstrate highly effective teaching of PE across the Key Stages</li><li>• be able to evidence high student achievement through the effective application of assessment and attainment information and planning for learning</li><li>• use a variety of strategies to motivate and engage all students</li><li>• have expertise in hockey and cricket</li><li>• ideally be able to teach Sport Psychology to A Level PE students</li></ul>
Pastoral
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• demonstrate the ability to lead, inspire, motivate and support pupils in their learning</li><li>• develop positive and professional working relationships with pupils and parents</li><li>• demonstrate the ability to create positive rapport with students</li><li>• be an energetic and supportive form tutor</li></ul>
Extra Curricular
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• be willing to positively contribute to the extra-curricular life of the department and school, including running lunch time sessions, competitions and after school fixtures</li><li>• be willing to accompany school trips and to lead them where appropriate</li></ul>
Professionalism
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• be able to evidence relevant professional development</li><li>• be willing to assist in the development of the department and in the creation of new schemes of work</li><li>• demonstrate an ability to work as part of a team in a successful and dynamic department;</li><li>• demonstrate excellent ICT, organisational and administrative skills</li><li>• be confident and competent in relevant Health &amp; Safety matters</li><li>• demonstrate high levels of personal and professional integrity</li><li>• present themselves to the highest standards of personal presentation</li><li>• have an excellent attendance record</li><li>• communicate effectively both orally and in writing to a variety of audiences</li><li>• be able to work flexibly, demonstrating an ability to be proactive, and self-directive while remaining positive and energetic</li><li>• be committed to their own professional development</li><li>• have the ability to inspire and motivate students</li><li>• be committed to the values of Sir Roger Manwood's School</li></ul>

