Deputy Head of Sixth Form

Full time, permanent contract, September 2025 start, TLR2b

We are seeking an outstanding, hard-working and forward-thinking candidate who can support the Head of Sixth Form and work with our sixth form community to support an exceptional academic and pastoral experience for the students at the school, contributing to it becoming the sixth form of choice in the area. The Deputy Head of Sixth Form will have responsibility for supporting the Head of Sixth Form oversee the academic progress and pastoral welfare of our students, including their transition into the Sixth Form and the day-to-day operation of the Sixth Form Centre. All subject specialisms will be considered but applications are particularly welcome from those with Maths, Computer Science or Chemistry (please see the separate adverts on our website) to join our pastoral team.

This post represents an opportunity to work with highly able young people in a supportive, well-equipped and forward-thinking school. We offer a friendly and inclusive working environment and the chance to be part of a fantastic team. SRMS is a great place to work and teach – it is a friendly, dynamic school where both staff and students thrive because they are highly valued.

We are preparing to embark on a new strategic development plan for the school, which values a rounded education that not only delivers outstanding academic outcomes but also encourages participation in the wider life of the school and development of skills for life, including leadership, collaboration and independence.

SRMS is a mixed grammar school that was graded Good in all categories by Ofsted in September 2022.
